

Your personality blend is
Visionary | Action-Taker

You're a practical person who feels comfortable taking charge. You've got a can-do attitude and prefer to lead by example, diving in to get work done. You believe that a lack of progress often stems from making excuses, so you strive to inspire others to believe in themselves.

Personality Breakdown

Complements

You like to work with other Action-Takers who share your hands-on approach to work. You don't like to take a lot of time for discussion in your personal or your work life and prefer to just jump in and get the job done. You appreciate that characteristic in your fellow Action-Takers and like having them on your team. When it comes to the task at hand, you also tend to prefer solitary work as opposed to work in a group, and you loathe meetings (unless you are leading them). You also appreciate working with your Planner colleagues because you rely on someone to take care of and remember the details. You and your Planner coworkers make the perfect team, working in tandem to cover all aspects of a project.

Conflicts

As a natural leader you have the ability to work with all types of people. However, your style allows you to have a clear picture in mind of the best way for things to be done, and you may find that if there are too many other Visionaries on your team, you get the feeling that there are 'too many cooks in the kitchen.' You may also find that you have to adjust your leadership style for your Analyzer colleagues. Analyzers are very thoughtful and spend a lot of time deep in thought before jumping into a project. You are just the opposite, sometimes making their work style difficult for you to understand.
